

Position: Grant Advisor

What's in it for you: This is an opportunity for professional development in which your expertise can be used to make a difference in the lives of people who struggle with stuttering.

Purpose: The Grant Advisor seeks out grants and produces successful grant applications for CSA, aiding the organization's mission of providing support to Canadians who stutter and their families by securing grant money to fund initiatives.

Key Responsibilities:

- Identify grant, funding, and award opportunities
- Write, submit, and manage grant/funding proposals
- Possess or acquire knowledge about stuttering and CSA to be used in grant applications

Skills: We are looking for someone who is passionate about CSA's mission of supporting Canadians with stutters and their families. This passion must be reflected in clear compelling grant/funding applications. CSA's grant advisor should have excellent written communication skills, be detail oriented, and comfortable working under tight deadlines.

Experience: Previous experience with grant writing or scientific writing is preferred. Backgrounds in science (specifically speech-language pathology), law, and/or non-profit work would be an asset.

Time Commitment: 2-4 hrs/month; flexible hours
